| Dear Freinds and colleagues

Greetings. Hope you all had a bit of a rest during the winter break. We are now quite focused on the closure and there are many issues to attend to. Amongst the high priorities are the final report and the conference with the publications and organizational tasks. As a first step please find attached a concept note on the conference with an agenda. Individual emails will follow to explain what is expected from each partner in terms of presentations in all four panels.

Warm regards
Malak
