Dear Friends and Colleagues

This is first to wish you all a very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year full of Peace, Joy, Love, Fulfilment and Health.

I am also writing because I would like to remind those that have not already sent their contributions to the final report to do so. We just received an important message from Brussels where they indicate that contributions from all partners is absolutely mandatory. They also insist that when we do complete the report all consortium members should indicate their agreement to the report in writing. Hence when sending the draft we will be sending a sheet with a written consent that you agree to the report and you will be invited to sign on it.

Warm regards

Malak
